

Once you've narrowed your choices, schedule campus visits. Ask your top colleges if they offer special visitation days for juniors. Try to visit in the spring of your junior year while college classes are still in session. See the College Prep Handbook for questions to ask during your visit.

Resources for students with disabilities...

If you have a disability that may require special accommodations in college, ask your guidance counselor for a copy of College Planning for Students with Disabilities or request a copy by calling EducationQuest at 800.666.3721. In addition, visit Educational Opportunities Beyond High School at <http://edweblab.unl.edu/edopportunities/default.htm>.

November "To Do" List

Juniors and Seniors...complete these tasks in November to stay on the right college planning track.

- _____ Seniors, ask your top colleges about admission, scholarship and financial aid deadlines.
- _____ Seniors, register by November 5 for the December 11 ACT.
- _____ Apply for scholarships.
- _____ Meet with college representatives visiting your school.
- _____ Attend the Financial Aid Program in your area. Find the schedule at www.educationquest.org/fap.asp.

EducationQuest Foundation is a private, nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Through a permanent endowment, EducationQuest provides free college planning services at its locations in Kearney, Lincoln and Omaha; funds need-based scholarship programs; and provides community grants for programs that enhance college access. For more information, call EducationQuest Foundation, headquartered in Lincoln, at 800-303-3745 or visit www.educationquest.org.