May 5 “Omaha College Affaire” will help juniors, sophomores begin college search effort

EducationQuest Foundation and the Great Plains Association for College Admission Counseling (GPACAC) will sponsor the “Omaha College Affaire” Thursday, May 5 from 6-8 p.m. at Millard North High School. This college fair will feature representatives from over 100 colleges and universities.

The “Omaha College Affaire” is designed to help high school juniors and sophomores start their college search efforts, although all students are welcome to attend. The event will be held in the Millard North High School gym located at 144th & Pacific Streets in Omaha. It will also feature financial aid presentations.

Share these tips with your students to help them make the most of their college fair visit:

- Before you attend, prepare a list of questions for school representatives. Ask about application deadlines and scholarships.
- Determine what you want from a school. This helps you rule out some colleges and look more closely at others. Take notes to keep track of schools that interest you.
- Prepare pre-printed labels with your name and address to stick on information cards at the college booths where you want additional information. This saves time as you complete the information cards.
