TAKE-HOME BOOK FAIR

The OCA library "Take-Home Book Fair" is currently underway. Profits from this book sale will go towards new books, periodicals, and resource materials for our library that are required by the State and ACSI for accreditation. The sale will end Friday, November 11th, at which time the orders and money need to be turned in. Please share the catalog with family and friends for great holiday gift ideas and at the same time you will be supporting our library! Extra catalog/order forms are available in the office, and you can also see various books and items featured in the catalog on the display table outside of the office.

REMINDER: Parents need to sign and have your child return the certificate to their teacher (homeroom for middle and high school) if they have sold 1 item by tomorrow (Thursday) in order to receive their sidwinder prize. For those who sell 3 items, the certificate for 2 bracelets must be signed by a parent and returned by Mon., Nov. 7th.

A big THANK YOU to those who participated in the "Teacher Wish-list" program. Forms are still available in the office for families who wish to purchase and donate a book to the library or their teacher in their child's name.

SUB-DISTRICT PLAY

The Lady Eagles entered post-season play, facing Brownell-Talbot on Monday night. They began the match with excellent defensive passing, but did not match the Raider offense. The first game went to the Raiders, but the Lady Eagles fought for a victory in the second. The third game went to the Raiders. In the fourth game, the Raiders had a 14-24 game point lead, but the Lady Eagles continued to put up a fight. Upon getting a side-out to make the score 15-24, Bethany Begg served 6 consecutive serves. With the help of a kill block from Marissa Wells, 2 kill attacks from both Marissa Wells and Michaela Schroeder, and 3 digs from Chantelle Steggerda, the Lady Eagles fought to make the score 20-24. Although the next point went to the Raiders for a win, the Lady Eagles finished the match strong. The Lady Eagles huddled together on the court to pray, thanking God for a great season and looking forward to the next. In the locker room, the team and coaches circled around the seniors and prayed for them, blessing them and thanking God for them. Bethany, Chantelle, Katie, Marissa, Michaela, Shayla, and Laura have each left a lasting impact for Christ.
