

Do you watch the news and helplessly wonder if there is anything you can do to make the world a more peaceful place?

There is something you can do!

Let peace be in your heart and MULTIPLY it in the lives of others.

Befriend and Host International Students.

Internationals come to Omaha from all over the world. They are looking for American friends and families to teach them about our culture, help them learn English, and assist them in adjusting to a new place. You can be their first friend in the USA.

To learn more about this exciting ministry opportunity contact Jennifer or Charity Stahl at the University of Nebraska's Office of International Studies and Programs at (402) 554-2293.